A CREDIT PROFESSIONAL'S GUIDE TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Wednesday • May 15

Registration Deadline: May 1

Breakfast 8:30-9:00 a.m. 9:00 a.m. — 12:30 p.m.

Valtris Specialty Chemicals, Inc.
500 East Pleasant Valley Road
Independence, OH 44131

This will be a half day interactive session — bring your lap tops so you can follow along using real financial statements and spreadsheets as we go through the concepts. You should expect to leave the session having a basic understanding of the following topics:

- US Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) for reporting financial information
- Related accounting concepts and why they are important to credit professionals
- What audited financial statements are and why they matter
- Each type of financial statement and how a credit professional uses it
- Ratios that are most useful to support credit decisions
- Putting it all together to make a credit decision — whether to grant, and what credit limit

Attendees will be provided with an excel template that generates basic ratio and other comparisons which can be modified to adapt to individual company calculations or industry preferences. The group will work together with the instructor to develop a credit recommendation so there is hands-on training in addition to lecture.
