15-minute Webinars to Help you Prioritize and Monitor Risk in Your Portfolio

ABOUT THE SERIES

As global economic conditions evolve, finance teams are expected to do more than ever – including keeping up with higher credit application volumes from some industries, while still ensuring that there is no increase in risk to their organization. There are tools available to help you during these uncertain times. Each of our easily consumable 15-minute webinars is designed to give you actionable insight for a specific area of risk monitoring.

Webinar 5: September 15th, 2:00 pm EST

Quantifying Risk in Related Companies

When you onboard a new customer, do you know how many family members you already do business with? Dun & Bradstreet can help you to increase your understanding of portfolio exposure and opportunity by knowing relationships between corporate entities both in and outside of your portfolio.

- Identify and link accounts to a consolidated customer view
- Consolidate accounts receivables into a global, unified view of relationships across a corporate entity
