Digital Order-to-Cash: A Roadmap to Cash Application Automation Part Three: Happy Customers, Happy Share Holders

Join us on:
Tuesday, May 19, 2020
10 - 11 a.m. CST

ABOUT THE WEBINAR

How many times have we heard that cash is the life blood of every organization? That old adage has not changed. Even in an organization where the money is flowing in timely you must get those payments applied quickly and accurately. Equally as important is being able to predict when that cash will be coming in. Manual processes are rife with errors and require large teams to match cash receipts to open invoices as well as determine when or if a customer will pay. If it is taking more than 1 day to post cash or your forecasting are constantly fluctuating, then you have a problem.

In this webinar learn how:

- Automation.
- Machine learning
- Robotic process automation

all translate into a traceable, predictable process without using a single sheet of paper.
