

Robert M. Healy

2023 Credit Executive of the Year

Each year, the membership of NACM Connect-Midwest elects a fellow member whose outstanding performance and accomplishments have made an impact on the credit profession. In order to qualify for a nomination, the credit executive must have a Certified Credit Executive (CCE) designation and be in good standing with the Association.

All members are encouraged to nominate someone who has displayed exemplary service in the profession, including teaching, speaking, writing, mentoring, etc. The award will be presented during the NACM Chicago-Midwest Annual Meeting on April 18, 2024.
