Networking Opportunities

Network and make new business contacts by joining the CLLA. Being engaged, involved, active and present makes all the difference. Involvement in the CLLA has helped our members to gain new clients, refer work to other members, grow their businesses, and build strong personal relationships.

Education

The CLLA offers members numerous opportunities to establish new business relationships and attend valuable educational sessions addressing legal developments, recent legislation, and other timely issues. CLLA regional and national meetings and conferences feature programs presented by industry professionals, including programs offered in partnership with organizations such as the National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges (NCBJ). Accredited educational programs provide opportunities to earn valuable CLE and CEU credits, with educational materials available online.

Professional Search

Find a CLLA Professional - All CLLA members are listed in our "Find a CLLA Professional" searchable database helping you market yourself and your firm 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

Find a CLLA Certified Agency - The CLLA certifies commercial collection agencies who meet CLLA's rigorous certification requirements. CLLA certified commercial collection agencies are listed in our "Find a CLLA Certified Agency" searchable dynamic map and in the Find A CLLA Professional directory.

Publications

Your membership includes a subscription to quarterly Commercial Law World Magazine (CLW), which offers industry news, best business practices, and in-depth coverage of significant cases and legislation. Members also receive access to the digital edition and Newswire, our every-third-week electronic newsletter.

Collection Agency Certification

CLLA's Commercial Collection Agency Certification is the accepted standard throughout the industry. The accreditation program has been in place for more than 50 years and is the mark of a trusted agency.

Member-Get-A-Member Referral Program

CLLA has its own way of saying thank you to their members through a referral program. Refer a prospect for membership who joins and your next year's renewal is FREE!

CLLA Practice Sections

The Commercial Law League has the following sections that were created to address the specialized needs of their respective constituencies. Each section elects its own officers and executive council. Every section also has a representative on the CLLA Board of Governors.

Agency Section

The Commercial Law League of America provides certification for Commercial Collection Agencies. This section provides educational, legislative, promotional and administrative services to its members. Certification demonstrates that your company:

- Commits to client and industry compliance requirements.
- Values leading practices in the industry.
- Adheres to relevant regulations.
- Protects and safeguards client funds.

Bankruptcy Section

Founded to promote high standards in the practice of bankruptcy and insolvency law before the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, the CLLA's Bankruptcy Section:

- Sponsors annual education seminars.
- Co-sponsors the educational program at the National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges (NCBJ) each fall.
- Publishes a Bankruptcy Blog.

Corporate Counsel Section

Formed to uphold the highest standards of professionalism and ethics among in-house and corporate counsel, the CLLA's Corporate Counsel Section:

- Fosters collaboration between corporate counsel and League members.
- Advances education, collegiality, and the exchange of information relevant to corporate, commercial, and creditors rights law.
- Participates in legislative and regulatory initiatives affecting corporate and commercial law.

Creditors' Rights Section

Created to meet the needs of attorney members who concentrate on representing creditors, the Creditors' Rights Section:

- Monitors legislation affecting creditors' rights at the state level.
- Obtains nationally known speakers for League events.
- Includes practice groups in complex commercial litigation, construction law and retail collections.

New Members' Section

The New Members' Section (NMS) is designed to help new members become familiar with the objectives of the League; namely, to:

- Promote uniformity of legislation in matters affecting commercial law.
- Elevate the standards and improve the practice of commercial law.
- Encourage an honorable course of dealing among its members and in the profession at large.
- Foster among its members a feeling of fraternity and mutual confidence.
